"They tried to hold us back but we fought And we stood our ground.
They tried to tell us this would never last, but we refused to come down.
So now we look at them and smile, cause we've won this battle.
But the war is still so far from over..... We Will Rise!!"

*" I am strong inside and out,
but when things go wrong my insides come out every once in a while things get like this,
every once in a while...

when you stand up, nothing wants to stay down would you give up? I dont know man, but I know I'm freakin' out "*
